The stores also feature the Todd Oldham by La-Z-Boy collection, including furnishings for the living and family rooms that blend fashion with function, including upholstered pieces, occasional furniture and decorative accessories.

Organized in “galleries” – including a Living Room Gallery, Family Room Gallery, Sleep Sofa Gallery, Leather Gallery, and, of course, a Recliner Gallery – the furniture at La-Z-Boy Furniture Galleries stores is displayed in vignettes complete with occasional and accent furnishings by La-Z-Boy subsidiaries, along with a dramatic selection of decorative accents, including lamps, area rugs, wall art and accessories, all available for sale.

Professional Design Assistance

Every La-Z-Boy Furniture Galleries showroom is built around the La-Z-Boy Design Center, which is staffed by design consultants and was created to provide customers with inspiration, answers and helpful assistance. Included in the design area is the interactive La-Z-Boy Screen Test® system, which allows customers to design their own furniture by rendering any La-Z-Boy product in their choice of hundreds of fabric and leather covers. For customers looking to shop in the convenience of their home, La-Z-Boy Furniture Galleries also offer in-home design assistance.

“Emphasizing design and style, the La-Z-Boy Furniture Galleries exemplify our direction for the future of La-Z-Boy,” said John J. Case, president of La-Z-Boy. “By offering our customers design assistance and an enjoyable shopping experience, we are going beyond offering just exceptional products and providing complete solutions for their homes.”

To make the shopping experience more family-friendly, these stores feature a wide circular pathway for easy navigation for families with children and strollers. Eye-catching signage guides shoppers through the store, directing them to the various galleries and providing meaningful information along the way. And, there is even a fun, interactive and educational play station in the Design Center area to entertain young children while parents work with the store design consultants to create the rooms of their dreams.
