LA-Z-BOY NAMES VP CORPORATE FABRIC PROCUREMENT

MONROE, MI. June 6, 2006 – La-Z-Boy Incorporated (NYSE, PCX: LZB) today announced that Mark Hellwig has been named Vice President Corporate Fabric Procurement. Hellwig will report to Otis Sawyer, Senior Vice President Corporate Operations, and will be responsible for developing a long-term strategy for fabric procurement and global sourcing.

Prior to joining La-Z-Boy, Hellwig was Vice President Supply Chain at Quaker Fabric Corporation, where he was responsible for all facets of the international supply chain. Before that, he was Director Supply Chain Management with Solo Cup Company after working as a consultant for Garr Consulting, where he specialized in business strategies focused on the sourcing and distribution sides of the supply chain for manufacturing, consumer and retail clients in North and South America.

Sawyer commented, “Mark brings to La-Z-Boy significant expertise in supply chain management. With a focus on global sourcing, his background will be invaluable as we work to leverage opportunities across all our upholstery divisions.”

Hellwig, 48, received a B.S. in Business Logistics from the University of Missouri and attended an MBA Program at American University.
