LA-Z-BOY ANNOUNCES AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE TO SELL CLAYTON MARCUS

MONROE, MI. September 13, 2007—La-Z-Boy Incorporated (NYSE: LZB) today announced that it has reached an agreement in principle to sell its Clayton Marcus subsidiary to Rowe Fine Furniture, Inc. (“Rowe”). Working terms of the agreement, which is expected to be finalized later this month, were not disclosed.

Founded in 1960, Clayton Marcus is a well-established, niche manufacturer of medium to upper-medium priced upholstered furniture, headquartered in Hickory, North Carolina. Its product collections cover a broad variety of style categories including casual, classic, and cottage and are distributed through hundreds of independently owned retailers throughout the United States and Canada and around the world.

Kurt Darrow, President and Chief Executive Officer of La-Z-Boy Incorporated, said, “While Clayton Marcus enjoys an excellent reputation in the market, the company does not fit with La-Z-Boy’s overall long-term strategy. We are confident that Rowe will be a synergistic owner for Clayton Marcus and that its customers will continue to be well serviced.”

Rowe, a manufacturer of upholstered furniture, is under new ownership by an affiliate of Sun Capital Partners, Inc.
